Accreditation
The Infectious Disease Association of California (IDAC) is accredited by the Institute for Medical Quality/California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. IDAC takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

IDAC designates this educational activity for a maximum of 5.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. This credit may also be applied to the CMA Certification in Continuing Medical Education. 1.0 hours may be applied to HIV certification.

Disclosures
This symposium is supported by grants from commercial interests. List of supporting companies will be available at the web site: www.idac.org and disclosed at the symposium. Topics and speakers are chosen independently of commercial interests. Speaker disclosures will be provided in the course syllabus, distributed at the symposium.

About IDAC
Founded in 1985, the Infectious Disease Association of California is a non-profit organization (Tax ID # 95-4106813), serving the educational needs of medical doctors in California with an interest in Clinical Infectious Diseases. IDAC is a regional society affiliated with the Infectious Diseases Society of America and the HIV Medical Association, as well as a recognized specialty society of the California Medical Association. IDAC conducts two symposia per year, publishes a quarterly newsletter, conducts research addressing clinical and business issues pertaining to the practice of Infectious Diseases, operates an Internet web site and email network, and coordinates a Speakers Bureau.

Full Membership is open to physicians practicing in California. Associate Membership is open to physicians practicing outside California, pharmacists, and Ph.D.s. Dues are $95 per year. Membership is also available to I.D. Fellows-in-Training in California at no charge.

As described in this brochure, the lecture program will address:

- Emerging Tick-Borne Pathogens
- HIV-Infected Elite Controllers
- Influenza Perennial and Pandemic
- Infection Prevention and Control Issues with Novel H1N1 Influenza: A Town Hall
- Local Fascinating Cases
- Optimizing Reimbursements in the Age of Accountability

In addition, the IDAC business meeting, conducted over a lunch buffet on Saturday, will address issues related to the practice of clinical infectious diseases.

Our annual I.D. Fellows Mentoring Session will follow the formal program. This is an informal round table discussion for fellows to interact with IDAC members, addressing questions about opportunities in private clinical practice.

TARGET AUDIENCE
This activity is designed to meet the educational needs of physicians, pharmacists, researchers, and infection control personnel with an interest in infectious diseases/HIV.

CURRICULAR GOALS & OBJECTIVES
Provide recommendations in the diagnosis, screening, and treatment of HIV, tick-borne infections, and Novel H1N1 influenza, as well as exploring the infection control prevention and control issues. In addition, we will discuss additional clinical presentations in our annual Local Fascinating Cases session. In a non-CME session, we will discuss a variety compensation issues related to the practice of infectious diseases.

Upon completion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

- Apply new recommendation for the diagnosis, screening, and treatment of tick-borne pathogens.
- Apply new recommendation for the diagnosis, screening, and treatment of HIV-infected elite controllers.
- Apply new recommendation for diagnosis, screening, and treatment of influenza, including Novel H1N1 influenza.
- Apply new recommendation for prevention and infection control of Novel H1N1 influenza.
- Apply new recommendation for diagnosis, screening, and treatment of interesting local cases.
- Understand compensation alternatives in an environment of increasing accountability
